Hi,

I was born in Liverpool, England. I am so happy to share my childhood school memories with you. I was at secondary school. My best subject was Maths. I was good at it. I learnt winning and losing graciously from my (PE) Physical Education teacher. I also learnt that I was capable of more than I thought.

My dream was to become a famous pilot. I was not fond of dates and events, so my worst subject as you knew was History. I remember when I was in 09th grade, I got my national exam (GCSEs) General Certificate of Secondary Education exams. Most students at the age of 15-16 used to pass this exam. It was one of my best moments in my life.

My ideal teacher was Mr Brown. My teacher of Maths . He taught me "addition, subtraction, division and multiplication. He was always serious, smart, helpful and thoughtful. He used to tell us "we would climb the mountain together, we can do it". I loved him because he believed in me.

Steve .
