Text

My name is Maria and I'm 16 years old. I was born in Vila Real, Portugal. The city is about 500 years old and has got a river called Corgo.

I lived in Vila Real until I was 11. Then my parents moved to Lisbon, the capital city. My favorite place in Vila Real was my home. It was big and comfortable and near the river. There was a big garden with lots of flowers, and some of the trees were very big and tall. My cousins always played hide-and-seek with me there.

My father, Eduardo, was a teacher in a primary school. Some of his pupils sometimes came to our house and played with me. They were very nice to me. When I went to primary school, I made a lot of friends. We did a lot of things together. After school, we played with our dolls or listened to our favorite songs. In the summer, my classmates and I went rowing and swimming in the river. We had a lot of fun.

It is very difficult for me to forget the time when I lived there. Now I live in a modern flat in the suburbs of Lisbon. The city is very friendly and beautiful, I like it, but I still miss my house and my friends.
