

The Final English Exam

The text :

The Joy Of Giving .

Charity is one of the noblest tasks that man can do in his life. According to different religious beliefs. Our life on earth is temporary .Thus, this brief period has to be lived with an objective. For some people, the true meaning of life is the « joy of giving ».

Charitable persons do charity for free .They love supporting poor people such as homeless, parentless, hospitalised children , elderly people and victims of natural disasters .Their joy is to raise hope in these unfortunate people. Charity organisations often organise a meeting to study the required budget and what are the ways to collect this money before proceeding in any activity. Their activities can be donating warm clothes in winter, planning visits to cancer children in hospitals or preparing supper for Muslims in Ramadhan ...etc.

Today ,the world is in greater needs of charity than ever before. The gap between the rich and the poor is widening. Nowadays, the world witness many wars and famines .Consequently, we have to encourage this voluntary work .
